STAR ONE CREDIT UNION MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is the contract of deposit which covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning Membership and accounts(s) offered to you. In this Agreement, the words “you” and “yours” mean those who execute the Membership Application and Account Card (“Account Cards”). The words “we”, “us” and “our” mean Star One Credit Union (“Credit Union”). The word “account” means any one or more savings accounts you have with the Credit Union.

The classification and form of ownership of your accounts are designated on your Account Card. By executing the Account Card that is a part of the Agreement, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including the Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, Truth-in-Savings Disclosure (Rate and Fee Schedule), and the Privacy Policy accompanying this Agreement, any account receipt, the Credit Union’s bylaws and policies, and any amendments which collectively govern your Membership and Accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this agreement, as amended from time to time.

MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNTS

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING NEW ACCOUNTS

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, we will ask you your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union’s field of membership and must satisfy the membership qualifications as required by the Credit Union’s Bylaws. You authorize us to check your financial information data and employment history by any means allowed by law, including obtaining credit reports and credit scores from third parties, also including consumer reporting agencies (e.g., ChexSystems, etc.) from time to time to determine your eligibility for accounts and services we may offer or you request from time to time. Members with an unacceptable credit record or history of writing “non sufficient funds” checks may not be eligible to open or maintain an account.

INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNTS

An individual account is an account owned by one depositor including any individual, corporation, partnership, trust, or other organization qualified for Credit Union membership. If the account is an individual account, the interest of a deceased individual owner will pass, subject to applicable law, to the decedent's estate or payable on death ("POD") beneficiary, if applicable.

JOINT ACCOUNTS

An account owned by two or more persons is a joint account.

Rights of Survivorship

If your account is a joint account, the account is owned as a joint account with right of survivorship. Upon the death of one of the joint account owners, that person's interest will become the property of the surviving joint account owners.

Rights of Joint Account Owners

Any joint account owner is authorized and deemed to act for the other owner(s) and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding the account and requests for future services from any other account owner. Each account owner guarantees the signature of the other owners. Any account owner may withdraw all funds in the account, stop payment on items drawn on an account, withdraw, or pledge all or any part of the shares of any account, including funds representing a membership share, without the consent of the other account owner(s) and the Credit Union shall have no duty to notify any other joint account owner(s). If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between account owners or receives inconsistent instructions from them, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate the account, require a court order to act, or require that all joint account owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.

Joint Account Owner Liability

If any item deposited in a joint account is returned unpaid or an account is overdrawn, or if we do not receive final payment on any transaction, each of the multiple account owners is jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item, overdraft, or unpaid amount and any charges, regardless of who created the overdraft, deposit or cashed the item or benefited from the transaction. If any account owner is indebted to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the joint account and any other joint account owned by the parties, regardless of who contributed the funds to the joint account.

POD/TRUST BENEFICIARIES

A Pay on Death (POD)/Trust designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that a designated account is an account payable to the owner or owners during their lifetimes, and upon the death of the last joint account owner, payable to any named and surviving POD/Trust beneficiary designated on your Account Card. Accounts payable to more than one POD/Trust beneficiary are owned jointly by such beneficiaries with right of survivorship. Any POD/Trust beneficiary designation shall not apply to IRA accounts which shall be governed by a separate beneficiary designation. The Credit Union shall at no time have any obligation to notify any beneficiary of the existence of any account or vesting of the beneficiary's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law.

ACCOUNTS FOR MINORS

For any account established by or for a minor, the Credit Union reserves the right to require the minor account owner to have a parent/guardian joint account owner who is at least eighteen (18) years of age who shall be jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for any returned item, overdraft, or unpaid charges or amounts on such account. For a joint account, all funds in the account shall be owned as a joint account with rights of survivorship unless otherwise indicated on the Account Card. The Credit Union may make payments of funds directly to the minor without regard to his or her minority upon consent of the parent/guardian joint owner. The Credit Union has no duty to inquire of the use or purpose of any transaction by the minor or joint account owner. The minor account owner's tax identification number must be shown on the Account Card. The Credit Union shall not change the account status when the minor reaches age eighteen (18), unless authorized in writing.

UNIFORM TRANSFERS TO MINORS ACCOUNT

An account established as an Uniform Transfers to Minors Account (UTMA) is an individual custodial account established by a member as a custodian on behalf of a minor (a person under eighteen (18) years of age or as otherwise indicated by applicable law). The custodian shall open the minor's account in the name of the minor, include the minor's social security number, and must include his or her own name on the Account Card. The minor must be in the Credit Union field of membership. The custodian shall control and transact on the account for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor and, barring a court order otherwise, is the only party entitled to make deposits to, withdrawals from, or close the account. The Credit Union will not be responsible for or inquire about the custodian's transactions on behalf of the minor. If a custodian resigns and appoints a successor custodian, the Credit Union may require the parties to execute an Account Card to reflect the change of authority. In the event of the custodian's death, the Credit Union may place an administrative hold on the account until it receives instructions from any person authorized by law to withdraw funds or a court order authorizing such withdrawal. The Credit Union will distribute all of the funds in this account to the minor when he/she reaches the age of 25.

ACCOUNTS FOR TRUSTS

An account of a trust is an individual account held by one or more trustees of a trust for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries pursuant to a revocable trust agreement. Upon the request of the Credit Union, the trustee(s) shall execute an Application for Account Held by Trust and a Membership Application and Account Card, and provide any other evidence of the trustee's authority the Credit Union requires. The trustee warrants that a valid trust has been created, is currently existing, and that the trustor or beneficiaries are eligible for membership in the Credit Union. The Credit Union does not act as a trustee and is under no obligation to inquire as to the powers or duties of the trustee(s). The trustee agrees to notify the Credit Union in writing if any change of trustee occurs. The Credit Union may withhold payment of funds to any party until proper evidence of authority is provided.

Except for irrevocable trusts, the Credit Union may rely upon the directions of any one trustee until a written notice of revocation of the trust is received. Funds may be released to any one trustee acting alone or with a co-trustee. The trustee(s) agrees to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless of any liability, claim, damage or loss arising as a result of unauthorized acts of any trustee or former trustee or acts of any trustee upon which the Credit Union relies prior to notice of revocation of the trust. This Agreement shall be binding on the trust, any trustee, successor trustee and beneficiaries.

ESTATE ACCOUNTS

Estate accounts may be established for a deceased individual who was a Credit Union member or the estate of an individual in which all beneficiaries are members or within the field of membership of the Credit Union. Estate accounts are subject to the terms of this Agreement and the following additional terms. No person other than an authorized representative providing certified copies of court appointment as an executor or personal representative may open an account or make any transactions in the accounts. The estate and all beneficiaries of the estate remain solely responsible for the authorized use of the account funds. The Credit Union shall have no obligation or responsibility to inquire as to the powers, duties or authorized acts of any authorized representative of the estate.

ACCOUNTS OF BUSINESSES AND ORGANIZATIONS

A business account is an account held by one individual and used for a sole proprietorship business. The Credit Union does not offer business accounts to corporations, partnerships, associations or organizations. Sole Proprietorship business accounts are subject to the same terms as set forth in this Agreement and the following additional terms. It is recommended that business account owners must report any unauthorized transactions within one day of the Settlement Date to the Credit Union. Addenda records for Corporate Credit or Debit (CCD), Corporate Trade Exchange (CTX), International ACH Transaction (IAT), and Customer Initiated Entry (CIE) transactions will be provided upon request within two business days. No person other than the account owner is authorized to make transactions on the account. The Credit Union reserves the right not to accept third party checks payable to a business. The Credit Union also requires that third party checks payable to a business must be deposited to the account or forwarded for collection.

DEPOSIT REQUIREMENTS

Funds may be deposited to any account in any manner approved by the Credit Union in accordance with the requirements set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. All accounts are nonassignable and nonnegotiable to third parties. Certificate Accounts are governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms and disclosures on your Certificate Account Receipt for each account, which is incorporated herein by this reference. You agree not to deposit any substitute check or similar item that you have created, or for which no financial institution has provided any substitute check warranties and indemnity. If you do so, you agree to indemnify the Credit Union for all losses the Credit Union incurs in connection with the substitute check or item.

Endorsements

You authorize the Credit Union, in its discretion, to accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts, whether or not they are endorsed by all payees. You authorize the Credit Union to supply missing endorsements if the Credit Union chooses to supply such endorsements. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on third party checks presented for deposit either in person or by comparison with member signature files. If an insurance, government, and certain other checks or drafts require an endorsement as set forth on the back of the check, the Credit Union may require endorsement as set forth on the check. Endorsements must be placed in the space on the back of the check between the top edge and 1-1/2 inches from the top edge. The Credit Union may accept drafts or checks with endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsement or other markings you or any prior endorser make on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error.

Collection of Items

The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an unstaffed facility until the Credit Union actually receives them. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union only acts as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collection.

Final Payment

All items or Automated Clearing House (“ACH”) transfers credited to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If the Credit Union does not receive such payment for the Entry, the Credit Union is entitled to a refund from the Account Holder’s account, and the Originator (Company) will not be considered to have paid the amount of the credit Entry to the Account Holder. The Credit Union is not required to provide the account holder with notice that the Credit Union has received the Entry unless the Credit Union has agreed to do so. After we have received final payment, we refer to these deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect any item, the Credit Union may charge such fee to your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse or to return all or any item or funds transfer. The Credit Union shall have the right to charge back against your account all previously deposited items or other items endorsed by you that are returned to the Credit Union unpaid, regardless of whether the amount of the item has been available for your use.

Direct Deposits

The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits (i.e., payroll checks, Social Security or retirement checks, or other government checks) or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. The Credit Union reserves the right to require you to authorize any direct deposits to your accounts by a separate authorization form. If applicable, you must notify the Credit Union at least thirty (30) days prior to any direct deposit or preauthorized transfer if you wish to cancel or change the direct deposit or direct transfer option. Upon a filing of a bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, you instruct your employer and the Credit Union to make and apply direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.

Crediting of Deposits

Deposits made on Sundays and Credit Union holidays will be credited to your account on the next business day. Deposits received at unstaffed facilities, such as night depositories, will be credited on the day funds are removed and processed by the Credit Union and are subject to adjustment based on our verification of the items deposited. Items drawn from an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. Amounts will be credited to your account when we receive final payment. You waive any notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest regarding any items purchased or received by the Credit Union for credit to your account or for collection.

Payment Priority

We pay the smallest items first, except in the case of cash items, which are always paid first regardless of the dollar amount.

ACCOUNT ACCESS

Authorized Signature

In order to access any account, the Credit Union must have a valid authorization of yours on an Account Card. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature, but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature and we have accepted the request, the Credit Union may honor any check that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. You warrant that such facsimile signature on any item or authorization is genuine and authorized. You remain solely responsible for the proper use of any facsimile signature device. The Credit Union shall not be liable for paying any item or following an authorization bearing an unauthorized facsimile signature, unless you have provided a proper stop payment order in accordance with this Agreement. If you give your account number to a third person, you authorize us to honor transactions initiated by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction.

Access Options

You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by the Credit Union (i.e., check, automated teller machines (ATMs), debit card, in person, by mail, automatic transfer, online or mobile banking, audio response, or telephone). If the Credit Union accepts any check that is not drawn on a form provided by the Credit Union, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union for handling the check. The Credit Union may return as unpaid any check that is not drawn in the form provided by the Credit Union.

ACH & Wire Transfers

If offered, you may initiate or receive credits or debits to your account via wire transfer or ACH (Automated Clearing House) transfer. You agree that if you receive funds by a wire or ACH transfer, the Credit Union is not required to notify you at the time the funds are received. Instead, the transfer will be shown on a periodic statement or in electronic banking. Electronic direct deposits made by Automated Clearing House (ACH) transfer will be made available for withdrawal by the opening of business on the day Star One received the deposited funds. You agree that if the Credit Union does not receive final settlement for a transfer, it may reverse the provisional credit to your account, or you will refund the amount to the Credit Union. When you initiate a wire transfer, you may identify either the recipient or any financial institution by name and by account number. The Credit Union (and other institutions) may rely on the account or other identifying number you give as the proper identification number, even if it identifies a different party or institution. Terms and conditions for international wire transfers will be provided at the time of the transfer transaction. Domestic wire transfers are governed by the Uniform Commercial Code Section 4A, and (if the transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve) by Federal Reserve Regulation J. International wire transfers are governed by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) Regulation E. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. You agree that the authorized transfer to or from your account must comply with all applicable federal and state laws or regulations including OFAC (Office of Foreign Asset Control) regulations.

International ACH Transactions

You understand that in the event an International ACH Transaction (“IAT”) Entry that is transmitted to or from any of your accounts is identified and designated by Star One Credit Union’s screening criteria for review and examination under the OFAC Rules and Regulations (“OFAC Rules”). The settlement of such an IAT Entry may be delayed or suspended pending the Credit Union’s review of the IAT Entry, and may be terminated under applicable OFAC Rules. You acknowledge that we may be required to place an indefinite hold on the funds covered by the IAT Entry if the IAT Entry is required to be terminated under the OFAC Rules. You agree that any delay described above will be a permissible delay under the regulations applicable to the availability of funds held in deposit accounts. In the event an IAT Entry is delayed or terminated, we will provide you such notice as may be required by applicable laws and regulations.

Credit Union Examination

The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

Electronic Check Transactions

Electronic Checks. If you authorize a merchant to electronically debit your checking account using the routing, account and serial number of your check to initiate the transfer, whether the check is blank, partially or fully completed and signed, such authorization is an electronic check conversion. An electronic check conversion is an electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) subject to the terms of the Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement and Disclosure. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion from your checking account just the same as a regular written check.

Electronic Re-presented Checks. If you write a check on a personal account that we return unpaid because of insufficient or uncollected funds, the payee or any subsequent holder of the check may re-present the check to us, through an electronic instruction ("Electronic Re-presented Check") to charge your account for the amount of the check. If we receive an electronic re-presented check, we will pay or return the electronic re-presented check as if the original paper check was presented to us. Any collection fee you authorize the merchant to debit from your account is an electronic funds transfer subject to the terms of the Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement and Disclosure. If you want to reverse an electronic re-presented check, you must give us a Written Statement of Unauthorized Debit (WSUD) form within 15 days after we send or make available to you the periodic statement that reflects payment of that electronic represented check. In your written statement you must declare that the electronic re-presented check was ineligible or unauthorized. If we receive a proper notice or Written Statement of Unauthorized Debit (WSUD) form from you within the 15-day period, we will recredit your account with the amount of the charge. If you wish to stop payment of any electronic re-presented check, you must follow the procedures contained in this Agreement for stopping payment of checks, not the procedures for stopping payment on electronic loan or bill payments. If you ask us to request the depositor's bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check, and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account recredited due to a prior stop payment order or if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

ACCOUNT RATES AND FEES

The Credit Union's payment of dividends on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payment and balance requirements as set forth on the applicable Rate and Fee Schedule and each Certificate Account Receipt, which are incorporated herein by this reference. You agree the Credit Union may impose fees and charges for the deposit account services provided by the Credit Union. A current Rate and Fee Schedule has been provided to you separately. You agree the Credit Union may change the Rate and Fee Schedule from time to time and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

TRANSACTION LIMITATIONS

Withdrawal Restrictions

The Credit Union will permit a withdrawal only if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal or have an established overdraft coverage plan. Checks or other transfer or payment orders which are drawn against sufficient available funds will be subject to a service charge, set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. If there are insufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are insufficient available funds.

The Credit Union may also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example: any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account (except checking accounts) of up to 60 days, as required by law, before such withdrawal.

Transfer Limitations

For savings accounts, you may make up to six (6) preauthorized, automatic, telephonic, audio response or overdraft transfers to another account of yours or to a third party during any calendar month. A preauthorized transfer includes any arrangement with the Credit Union to pay a third party from the member's account upon oral or written orders, including orders received through the automated clearing house (ACH). There is no limit on the number of transactions you may make in the following manner: (i) transfers to any loan account with the Credit Union; (ii) transfers to another Credit Union account or withdrawals (checks mailed directly to you) when such transfer or withdrawal is initiated in person, by mail or at an ATM. If a transfer request would exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any statement period, the Credit Union may refuse or reverse the transfer, and your account will be subject to suspension or closure by the Credit Union, and the Credit Union may impose a charge.

OVERDRAFTS

Your Overdraft Liability

If on any day the available funds in your checking account are not sufficient to cover checks and other items posted to your account, those checks and items will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures and the terms of this Agreement. The Credit Union's determination of the insufficient available account balance is made at the time the check or item is presented to us, which may be later than the time you conduct the transaction. Your available balance may be lower than your actual balance due to funds held for debit card transactions you have authorized, checks held pursuant to our funds availability policy or ACH pre-authorized debits that have not yet been processed.

Please contact us if you want to know your available balance to avoid an overdraft. The Credit Union processes checks and items as follows: (i) checks are paid based upon the amount of the check with the lowest checks paid first, (ii) ACH credits are processed first and ACH debits processed second in the chronological order they are received, and (iii) debit card transactions are paid in the chronological order they are received. The Credit Union has no duty to notify you of a check or item that will overdraw your account. If we pay an item that overdraws your account, you are liable for and agree to pay the overdraft amount and any fees immediately. You will be subject to a charge for the item whether paid or returned as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items any time, including giving a payer bank extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.

Overdraft (Courtesy Pay) Limit

The overdraft limit of $2,000 is not included in the available balance or actual balance in your account in online banking, mobile banking or at ATMs. If an overdraft occurs, the amount overdrawn is displayed as a negative in the account transaction history.

Savings Overdraft Transfers

If you qualify, we will automatically enroll you for overdraft transfers from your savings account. If you have enough funds in your savings account, you authorize us to automatically transfer funds in increments of $100 to cover any overdraft on your checking account. You may choose the specific savings account you want overdraft transfers to come from. You may opt out of the savings overdraft transfer service at any time by notifying us verbally or in writing.

VISA/Line of Credit Overdraft Transfers. If you have a VISA account with us and qualify, we will automatically enroll you for overdraft transfers from your VISA account. If you do not have a VISA account and you have a line of credit account with us, we will automatically enroll you for overdraft transfers from your line of credit account. If you have available credit, you authorize us to automatically transfer funds in increments of $100 to cover any overdraft on your checking account. There is no cash advance or overdraft transfer fee for this transfer service, but interest will begin to accrue from the date of any advance. You may opt out of the Visa/line of credit overdraft transfer service at any time by notifying us verbally or in writing.

Actual Balance

Your actual balance is the amount of money that is actually in your account at any given time. Your actual balance reflects transactions that have posted to your account, but it does not include transactions that have been authorized and are pending. While it may seem that the actual balance is the most up-to-date display of the funds than you can spend from your account, this is not always the case. Your account may have purchases, holds, fees, other checks, charges or deposits made on your account that have not yet posted and therefore, will not appear in your actual balance.

Available Balance

Your available balance is the amount of money in your account that is available to you without incurring an overdraft fee. Your available balance takes into account holds that have been placed on deposits and pending transactions (such as pending debit card transactions) that we have authorized but that have not yet posted to your account.

Courtesy Pay Overdraft Service

We offer a discretionary overdraft service (Courtesy Pay) to cover overdrafts on your checking accounts. The Courtesy

Pay service is offered to all eligible consumer checking account owners who qualify and remain in good standing with the Credit Union. Courtesy Pay is not offered to minors, fiduciary, business or organizational accounts. If you qualify for Courtesy Pay, we will automatically enroll you in the service which will be provided under the following terms and conditions. Courtesy Pay service will be provided for debit card purchase transactions only if you request Courtesy Pay services by expressly requesting these transactions (“opt-in”).

1. Discretionary Service. The Credit Union offers the Courtesy Pay service to eligible consumer checking account owners who qualify. Under the Courtesy Pay service, we are not obligated to pay any check or item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient funds. We may, as a discretionary service and not as a right of yours or our obligation to you, pay overdrafts up to an approved overdraft limit under the terms of this service and independent of any loan arrangement you may have with us. We will not pay an overdraft for you in excess of any limit we have established for your account type. Also, we may refuse to pay an overdraft for you at any time, even if we have previously paid overdrafts for you. If you enroll in our eNotice Service, we will notify you of any insufficient funds transactions. However, we have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item.

2. Overdraft Transactions Covered. Subject to the opt-in requirement set forth above, if on any day you do not have available funds in your account, the following transactions, which may result in an insufficient or negative balance (“overdrafts”), may be covered under our service: checks, debit card purchases, online or other electronic funds transfers, ACH debits and other payments or withdrawals authorized by you, account service charges, pre-authorized drafts, and any other items that may be posted to your account. If we pay an item, we will pay the item in the order it is presented or received by us, regardless of amount and in accordance with our normal operating procedures for such checks, items or transactions.

3. Overdraft Limit/Available Balance. We will inform you of the overdraft limit to which you qualify upon request. We may pay overdrafts up to this overdraft limit provided you continue to qualify for the service. The Credit Union’s fees and charges and each paid check or items will be included in this limit. This overdraft balance will not be included or reflected in your actual or “available balance” of your account provided by a teller, at ATM or POS facilities, through online services or on your periodic statements.

4. Overdraft Fees. There is a Courtesy Pay fee for each overdraft check or item we pay, as set forth on our Rate and Fee Schedule. If we do not pay the overdraft, there is a Returned Item fee for each check or item we return. There is no limit on the number of overdrafts paid or overdraft fees incurred on any one day. These fees may be amended as set forth in our Rate and Fee Schedule.

5. Member Repayment Responsibility. You agree your overdraft balance, including applicable overdraft fees, is due and payable upon demand. If there is more than one owner on an account, all owners are jointly and severally liable for repayment of the overdraft balance. If you fail to repay your overdraft balance within 15 days of notice from us, we may immediately suspend the overdraft service. Accounts may be closed for failure to repay overdraft balances and we will report account closures to consumer reporting agencies.

6. Member Opt-Out Right. We offer the Courtesy Pay service as a service and convenience to members for incidental overdrafts. We do not encourage you to repeatedly overdraw your account. We encourage you to manage your finances responsibly. You may opt out of the Courtesy Pay service at any time by notifying us verbally or in writing. We may require that any verbal opt-out be confirmed in writing. You understand that by opting out of the service, we may refuse to pay any check or item that is presented against an insufficient balance on your account and you will be responsible for any Returned Item fees. You are still responsible to pay any overdraft, even if you have opted out of the service.

7. Credit Union Contact. For any questions or to exercise your opt-out right, use the Courtesy Pay Opt-In/Opt-Out Form located at www.starone.org or call the Credit Union at 408.543.5202 or 866.543.5202 or write Star One Credit Union, PO Box 3643, Sunnyvale, CA 94088-3643.

POST DATED AND STALE DATED ITEMS

You authorize us to accept and pay any check, even if the check is presented for payment before its date, unless you notify the Credit Union of the post dating. Your notice will be effective only if the Credit Union receives the notice in time for the Credit Union to notify its employees and reasonably act upon the notice and you accurately describe the check, including the number, date, and amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union's computer to identify the check. If you give the Credit Union an incorrect, incomplete, or untimely notice, the Credit Union will not be responsible for paying the item before the date stated and the Credit Union may charge your account as of the date the Credit Union pays the item. You may make an oral notice which will lapse within fourteen (14) days unless continued in writing, within that time. A written notice will be effective indefinitely unless it is subsequently cancelled in writing. You also agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable. The Credit Union is under no obligation to you to pay a check drawn on your account which is presented more than six months after its date.

STOP PAYMENT ORDERS

Liability

The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested, as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. You should be aware that while payment of the item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any person, including the Credit Union, who is a holder of the item despite the stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney fees, damages or claims related to the Credit Union's action in refusing payment of an item, including any claims of any multiple party account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

Stop Payment Request

You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon or ACH debit scheduled from your checking account. You may request a stop payment by telephone, by mail, by online request through Online Banking or in person. For checks, the stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order. For ACH debits, the stop payment order must be received within a reasonable timeframe to stop the item(s) before the scheduled date of the transfer. You must state the number of the account, date and the exact amount of the check or ACH debit and the number of the check or originator of the ACH debit. For ACH debits if you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we recredit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist the Credit Union in legal action taken against the person.

Duration of Order for Checking Accounts

You may make an oral stop payment order which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless continued in writing within that time. A written stop payment order will be effective indefinitely, unless it is subsequently cancelled in writing.

Cashier's Check Stop Payment Request

You may not stop payment on any certified check or draft, official check, cashier's check or teller's check, or any other check, draft or payment guaranteed by the Credit Union. You may request by mail, fax, telephone, or in person that the Credit Union issue a replacement check for a lost, stolen or destroyed Credit Union check. You should be aware that a replacement check might not be issued until 90 days from the original check issue date.

LOST ITEMS

The Credit Union, in receiving items from you for withdrawal or deposit, acts only as your agent and reserves the right to reverse the credit for any deposited items or to charge your account for the items should they become lost in the collection process.

CREDIT UNION'S LIABILITY FOR ERRORS

If the Credit Union does not properly complete a transaction according to this Agreement, the Credit Union will be liable for your losses or damages not to exceed the amount of the transaction, except as otherwise provided by law. The Credit Union will not be liable if: (a) through no fault of the Credit Union, your account does not contain enough money to make the transaction; (b) circumstances beyond the Credit Union's control prevents the transaction; (c) your loss is caused by your negligence or the negligence of another financial institution; or (d) the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim. The Credit Union will not be liable for consequential damages except liability for wrongful dishonor. The Credit Union's actions will constitute the exercise of ordinary care if such actions or nonactions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and general banking practices followed in the area serviced by the Credit Union. You grant the Credit Union the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Account Agreement. Any conflict between oral representation by you or Credit Union employees and any written form will be resolved by reference to this Agreement and the written form.

CREDIT UNION LIEN AND SECURITY INTEREST

To the extent you owe the Credit Union money as a borrower, guarantor, indorser or otherwise, with the exception of a credit card(s), the Credit Union has a lien on any or all of the funds in any account in which you have an ownership interest at the Credit Union, regardless of the source of the funds as allowable by law. The Credit Union may apply these funds in any order to pay off your indebtedness without further notice to you. If the Credit Union chooses not to enforce its lien, the Credit Union does not waive its right to enforce the lien at a later time. In addition, you grant the Credit Union a consensual security interest in your accounts and agree the Credit Union may use the funds from your accounts to pay any debt or amount owed the Credit Union, except obligations secured by your dwelling, unless prohibited by applicable law. All accounts are nonassignable and nontransferable to third parties.

RIGHT OF OFFSET

We will not be liable for the dishonor of any item when the dishonor occurs because we offset a debt against an account. You agree to hold us harmless from any claim arising as a result of our exercise of our right of offset.

LEGAL PROCESS

If any legal action, such as a levy, garnishment, or attachment, is brought against your account, the Credit Union may refuse to pay out any money from your account until the dispute is resolved. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses or attorney fees in responding to legal process, the Credit Union may charge a legal process fee as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. Such expenses may be charged against your account without prior notice to you, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to the Credit Union's lien and security interest.

ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Upon your request, the Credit Union will inform you of the name and address of each credit reporting agency from which the Credit Union obtains a credit report in connection with your account. The Credit Union agrees not to disclose information to third parties about your account regarding any transaction or balances except when: (1) it is necessary to complete the transaction; (2) the third party seeks to verify the existence or condition of your account in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act or other applicable laws and regulations; (3) such disclosure is in compliance with the law, government agencies or court orders; or (4) you give us written permission.

RESERVE

You agree and understand that the Credit Union may implement accounting features that treat checking accounts as a checking account and a subsavings account in order to minimize the Credit Union's reserve requirements on such accounts. These features will have no impact on your account.

NOTICES

Name or Address Changes

It is your responsibility to notify the Credit Union upon a change of address or change of name. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you only at the most recent address you have provided to the Credit Union. Address changes may be accepted through the Credit Union's Call Center and Online and Mobile Banking Service. If the Credit Union attempts to locate you, the Credit Union may impose a service fee as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule.

Notice of Amendments

Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, the terms of this Agreement are subject to change at any time. The Credit Union will notify you of any changes in account terms, rates, or fees as required by law. Changes in account ownership, such as adding or removing a joint account owner, must be evidenced in writing. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union's right to enforce any right in the future.

Effect of Notice

Any written notice you give to the Credit Union is effective when it is actually received by the Credit Union. Any written notice the Credit Union gives to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any one account owner is considered notice to all owners of the account.

Contact Authorization

By providing your telephone and email information to the Credit Union you expressly authorize the Credit Union to contact you at any telephone number or email address you entered, so we can assist you with your account and account services, or take measures to prevent fraud on your account.

You agree the Credit Union may use automatic telephone dialing systems in connection with calls made to any telephone number you entered, even if the telephone number is assigned to a cellular telephone service or other service for which the called party is charged. You may revoke this authorization at anytime by providing the Credit Union with your written or verbal revocation.

NEGATIVE INFORMATION NOTICE

We may report information about your loan, share or deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.

TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS (TIN) AND BACKUP WITHHOLDING

If your account is or becomes subject to backup withholding, the Credit Union is required by law to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a required percentage of payments of interest, dividends and certain other payments under certain conditions. Your failure to furnish a correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) or meet other applicable requirements may result in backup withholding as well as civil or criminal penalties. If you refuse to provide your TIN, the Credit Union may suspend the opening of your account.

STATEMENTS

Contents

If the Credit Union provides a statement for your account, you will receive a periodic statement of all transactions and activity on your account during the statement period. If a periodic statement is provided you agree that only one statement is necessary for a multiple party account. For checking accounts, you understand that when paid, your original check (or any substitute check) becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you. You agree to keep a copy or carbon copy of your original check in order to verify its validity. If you request us to provide you with an original check or sufficient copy, you agree that we may provide an electronic image of the original check or sufficient copy if you have agreed to receive account information or statements electronically.

Examination

You are responsible for examining each statement and your check copy and reporting any irregularities to the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any forged, altered, unauthorized, or unsigned item drawn or deposited to your account if you fail to notify the Credit Union within sixty (60) days of the mailing date of the earliest statement or delivery of e-statements and availability of drafts containing any forgery, alteration, or unauthorized signature on the item.

Notice to Credit Union

You agree that the Credit Union's retention of checks does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements and check copies or the time limit for notifying the Credit Union of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes and the Credit Union will not be liable for any payment made or charged to your account unless you notify the Credit Union in writing within the above time limit after the statement and check copies are made available to you.

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

If your statement is provided electronically, you will be sent an electronic mail notice that will direct you to the website where you may access, review, print and otherwise copy/download your periodic statements using procedures we authorize. Electronic mail from us will be sent to the electronic mail address provided by the account owner.

Electronic Signatures

You understand and agree that your electronic consent, execution or authorization is your electronic signature which specifically records your signature and assent to the Membership and Account Agreement and constitutes your agreement to the terms and conditions of the Membership and Account Agreement. You agree your electronic signature captured and stored as an image by this electronic means shall be sufficient to evidence of your assent to be contractually bound by the Agreement and shall constitute a valid signature for purposes of any provision of this Agreement.

Consent to Communications

By providing an email address, telephone number for cellular phone, or other wireless device, you are expressly consenting to receiving communications at that address or number, including, but not limited to, prerecorded or voice mail message calls, text messages, and calls made by an automatic telephone dialing system from us and our affiliates and agents. This express consent applies to each address or telephone number that you provide to us now or in the future and permits such communication regardless of their purpose. In the regular course of our service to you, we may monitor and record phone conversations made or received by our employees. You agree that we will have this right with respect to all phone conversations between you and our employees, whether initiated by you or any of our employees. For payment authorizations you provide by telephone, we may require you to confirm such instructions in writing.

DORMANT ACCOUNTS AND UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

Dormant Accounts

If you have an account that you have not made a withdrawal from, deposit to, or transfer involving your account for more than twelve (12) months and the Credit Union has been unable to contact you by regular mail during that period, the Credit Union may classify your account as a dormant account and may charge a dormant account service fee as allowed by applicable law and set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. Thereafter, dividends will not be paid on the account if the balance falls below any minimum balance requirement. The Credit Union will notify you at your last known address prior to imposing any fee as required by law.

Unclaimed Property Law

Credit Union Savings-Conditions of Escheat to California:

- (1) Owner's (member's) address is in California, or
- (2) No owner (member) address is shown in Credit Union's records; Credit Union's principle place of business is in California, or
- (3) Owner's (member's) address is in another state; Credit Union's principle place of business is in California, and the state in which member resides does not escheat that item. Credit Union savings and accumulated dividends earned thereon will escheat to the State Controller if any one of the above conditions is met if the member (savings holder of record) for more than three years:
 - (1) has not claimed a cash dividend, paid in or withdrawn funds, or
 - (2) has not corresponded in writing with the Credit Union indicating an interest in the savings, or
 - (3) has not otherwise indicated an interest which is evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the Credit Union (example: a pledge of savings as security for a loan).

Reclaiming Escheated Property:

If your funds have been sent to the State, you may file a claim by contacting the California State Controller's Office, Unclaimed Property Division, P.O. Box 942850, Sacramento, California 94250-5880, nationwide call 800 992-4647, out-of-US call 916 323-2827, or go to www.sco.ca.gov or www.claimit.ca.gov

DEATH OF ACCOUNT OWNER

The Credit Union may require the survivor or other claimant to the account to produce certain documents before releasing the funds in the account. The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits and other transactions on the account until the Credit Union learns of an account owner's death. Once the Credit Union learns of a member's death, the Credit Union may pay checks or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days unless the Credit Union receives instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks or other items. You agree that the Credit Union can require that anyone who claims funds in your account after your death indemnifies the Credit Union for any losses resulting from honoring that claim.

TERMINATION OF ACCOUNT

The Credit Union may terminate your account at any time without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if: (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the account; (4) any account checks are lost or stolen; (5) there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft coverage plan; (6) there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of your accounts; or (7) you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of the account or Credit Union Bylaws and policies. You may terminate your account at any time by notifying the Credit Union in writing. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any check, withdrawal, or other item once your account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays a check after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for the payment.

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

You may terminate your membership at the Credit Union after giving written notice of your intent to withdraw from membership. You may be denied services or expelled from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, for causing a loss to the Credit Union, which includes but is not limited to causing the Credit Union to suffer an actual or potential loss, intentionally or otherwise perpetrating real or potential fraud on the Credit Union; or excessive expense, causing damage to the Credit Union and its property, or engaging in any abusive or threatening conduct to the Credit Union, employees or members.

SPECIAL ACCOUNT INSTRUCTIONS

You may request the Credit Union to facilitate certain trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because the Credit Union does not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your trust, will or court order. If you ask the Credit Union to follow instructions that the Credit Union believes might expose it to claims, suits, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, the Credit Union may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to post a bond or indemnify the Credit Union. Any item presented with a full payment legend must be presented in person to a Credit Union officer; otherwise, payment is accepted with full reservation of rights. Account changes required by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by an executed Account Card and accepted by the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not recognize the authority of someone to whom you have given power of attorney without written authorization and a copy of the Power of Attorney on record at the Credit Union.

You understand and agree we may temporarily freeze account funds, temporarily postpone a transaction or may require additional information about you or any authorized account signer and to file any required reports to protect your account funds when we reasonably suspect possible elder or dependent adult abuse or if it is not clear that the account signer requesting a transaction understands the transaction. (For example, when the account signer is perceived to be confused, acting under undue influence, or out of fear or appears to be experiencing diminished capacity.)

You understand that the Credit Union may choose to retain electronic or imaged copies of any original documents and you agree that an electronic or imaged copy is valid as an original document.

PHONE CALLS

In the regular course of our business, we may monitor and record phone conversations made or received by our employees. You agree that we will have such right with respect to all phone conversations between you and our employees, whether initiated by you or any of our employees. For payment authorizations you provide by telephone, we may require you confirm such instructions in writing.

SEVERABILITY

In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or any portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect.

ILLEGAL TRANSACTIONS

You may not use any financial service or access device for any illegal transaction and we may decline to authorize or process any transaction we reasonably believe poses an undue risk of illegality. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any action, liability or damage, directly or indirectly, resulting from such use.

ENFORCEMENT

You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss or expense from your account without prior notice to you. If you are in breach of this Agreement or any other loan or service agreement with the Credit Union or we suspect fraudulent activity on your account, the Credit Union may without prior notice restrict access to your accounts or suspend your electronic services or access devices, including ATM or debit cards and online or mobile banking services. Such restrictions may continue until you cure any breach condition or any fraud condition is resolved. In the event either party brings legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings and any post-judgment collection actions.

GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of California and local clearinghouse rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which the Credit Union is located.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

GENERAL POLICY

For savings accounts, we reserve the right to place reasonable holds on deposit funds to the extent permitted by law. For checking accounts, our funds availability policy is set forth below. Our policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you generally on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit during business hours on a day we are open, we will consider that the deposit was made on that business day. However, if you make a deposit after close of business or on a day we are not open, we will consider the deposit made on the next business day that we are open.

RESERVATION OF RIGHT TO HOLD

In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, (For example, checks that exceed available funds or third party checks.) funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $200.00 of your deposit will be available on the first business day. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will send you the notice by the day after we have received your deposit.

HOLDS ON OTHER FUNDS

If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY

We may delay your ability to withdraw funds deposited by check into your account an additional number of days for these reasons:

- We believe a check you deposited will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000.00 on any one day.
- You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

SPECIAL RULES FOR NEW ACCOUNTS

If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open.

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000.00 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be made payable to you. The excess over $5,000.00 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000.00 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE

INTRODUCTION

This Agreement covers your and our rights and responsibilities for the Electronic Funds Transfer (“EFT”) services offered to you by Star One Credit Union (“Credit Union”). In this Agreement, the words “you” and “yours” mean those who request and use an EFT service, any joint owners and accounts accessed under this Agreement or any authorized users. The words “we,” “us,” and “our” mean the Credit Union. The word “account” means any one or more deposit accounts you have with the Credit Union. When you use an EFT service, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, and any amendments including the Bill Payment Service Agreement and Mobile Banking Service Addendum, as applicable. The Credit Union’s Electronic Funds Transfers (“EFTs”) are electronically initiated transfers of money through the Touchtone Teller (audio response) or Online Banking (Internet) involving your accounts at the Credit Union. The terms of this Agreement apply to consumer and business EFT users the same, except as specifically provided.

TOUCHTONE TELLER (AUDIO RESPONSE) SERVICE

Account Access

You may use the Touchtone Teller telephone audio response service to access your accounts. You must designate an (4-8 digit) access code and use your access code along with your member number to access your accounts.

Types of Transactions

At the present time you may use the Touchtone Teller service to:

- Review account balance and transaction information, including: transfers, withdrawals, dividends, loan payoff and interest amounts, and payment due date information on your applicable deposit and loan accounts.
- Transfer funds between your Checking, Savings, and Loan accounts as allowed, including making loan payments and taking loan advances.
- Withdraw funds from your Checking or Savings accounts by check, made payable to you and mailed to you at your mailing address.
- Transfer funds from your Savings or Checking account to another member’s account or loan as authorized.
- Change your access code to a new (4-8 digit) access code.
- Other transactions as offered and permitted in the future.

Service Limitations

Your accounts can be accessed under audio response via a touchtone telephone only. Audio response service will be available for your convenience seven (7) days per week. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing. You may make inquiries, transfers, or withdrawal requests as often as you like. However, transfers from a savings account to a checking account will be limited to six (6) in any one month. No transfer or withdrawal may exceed the available funds in your account. Any loan transactions will be governed by the applicable Loan Agreement. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient or unavailable funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. All checks are payable to you as a primary member and will be mailed to your address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. There is no limit on the number of transaction requests you may make during a single phone call.

PREAUTHORIZED ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

By executing the Account Card, you agree to the following terms governing your and our rights and responsibilities concerning preauthorized electronic funds transfer services. Terms and conditions set forth elsewhere in this Agreement shall apply to your electronic funds transfer service.

Services

Preauthorized electronic funds transfer services include:

Electronic Check Transactions

You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion transaction and re-presented check fee debit transactions you authorize ("electronic check transactions"). You agree that your authorization for an electronic check transaction occurs when you initiate such a transaction after receiving any notice regarding the merchant's right to process the transaction, including any written sign provided by the merchant at the time of your transaction. All terms governing electronic funds transfer services will apply to electronic check transactions, except the $50 and $500 limits of liability for unauthorized transactions in the Member Liability section. You remain responsible for notifying us of any unauthorized electronic check transaction shown on your statement.

Preauthorized Debits (Withdrawals)

You may arrange with third parties in advance to have regular preauthorized electronic payments, such as mortgage payments or insurance premiums, made from your checking account. If you have previously signed a Credit Line Loan Agreement, and the Credit Union has approved overdraft coverage for you, you authorize the Credit Union to access your line of credit to cover any overdraft amounts (up to your credit limit) resulting from preauthorized debits. These overdraft transfers will be governed by your Credit Line Loan Agreement. You may also have overdrafts covered by transfer from your savings account (prearrangements required). (Maximum of six transfers per calendar month in $100.00 increments only.) If sufficient funds are not available in your checking account, and you have not made arrangements as outlined above, the debit will be refused for “not sufficient funds” and a charge will apply.

Direct Deposit

Upon instruction of your employer or the Treasury Department or other financial institutions the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of your paychecks or of Federal recurring payments, such as Social Security. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by calling 408 543-5202 or 866 543-5202 and press 1 for Touchtone Teller or press 2 for Member Services, or logging into Online or Mobile Banking to find out whether a deposit has been made.

Stop Payment Procedures

If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments by completing the form in Online Banking or by calling the Credit Union at 408 543-5202, 866 543-5202 or writing to P.O. Box 3643, Sunnyvale, California 94088-3643, in a reasonable time-frame for us to receive your request before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within fourteen (14) days after you call. We will charge you a fee for each stop payment order you give us as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule.

Credit Union Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers

If you order us to stop one of these payments three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

Notice of Varying Amounts

If these regular payments vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, ten (10) days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. (You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.)

Unauthorized Transactions

If you believe someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call:

408 543-5202 or 866 543-5202 or write:

Star One Credit Union
P.O Box 3643
Sunnyvale, CA 94088-3643.

ONLINE BANKING ACCOUNT ACCESS

Account Access

You may use your personal computer to access your accounts through the Internet. You will need a personal computer and access to the Internet (World Wide Web). You must use your access code along with your User Name to access your accounts. The Online Banking services are accessible 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of any software, your computer and internet enabled devices. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving telephone service, any Internet service provider, your software installation or your computer.

By enrolling in the Multi Account View Service, you certify you are an owner, joint owner or custodian on the accounts represented in your enrollment. You understand that all owners of your accounts or anyone with whom you share your Password or any access code will be an Authorized User, and that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner with full authority to perform all transactions relating to the stated accounts, until you notify the Credit Union, in writing of the revocation of such authority. You agree that you are and will remain fully responsible for any transactions made by such persons on your accounts except transactions that occur after the Credit Union has been notified of any revocation of authority and has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon such notice.

ONLINE BANKING TRANSACTIONS

At the present time, you may use any of the Online Banking services to:

- Transfer funds between your Checking, Savings Account, and Loan accounts.
- Review account balance and account transaction information for any of your accounts.
- Download account information for any account to financial management software programs such as Intuit Quicken or Microsoft Money, if applicable.
- Communicate with the Credit Union using the electronic mail (E-mail) feature.

Transactions involving your deposit accounts will be subject to your Membership and Account Agreement and transactions involving a loan account will be subject to your Consumer Loan Agreement and Disclosures.

MOBILE BANKING ENROLLMENT

You may enroll in Mobile Banking via a form in Online Banking or directly on the App. Mobile Banking is a personal financial information management service that allows you to access account information, products and services using compatible and supported mobile phones and/or other compatible and supported wireless devices (including phones, "Wireless Devices"). We reserve the right to modify the scope of the Mobile Banking Services at any time. We reserve the right to refuse to make any transaction you request through Mobile Banking. You agree and understand that Mobile Banking may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some mobile telephone networks, such as while roaming. The most up-to-date list of services which you may be able to access through Mobile Banking is posted on the Mobile Banking registration and management website accessed through the Online Banking system. When you register for Mobile Banking, designated accounts linked to your account through Online Banking will be accessible through the Mobile Banking service.

MOBILE BANKING ACCOUNT ACCESS

You may use compatible and supported mobile phones and/or other compatible and supported wireless devices (including phones, "Wireless Devices") to access your accounts using Credit Union Mobile Banking and the associated App. You will need a smartphone or tablet or similar device with access to the internet, WIFI or Cellular data capability. You must use your access code along with your User Name to access your accounts. The Mobile Banking services are accessible 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of any software and your device. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving telephone service, any Internet service provider, your software installation or your device.

MOBILE BANKING TRANSACTIONS

At the present time, you may use any of the Mobile Banking services to:

- Transfer funds between your Checking, Savings Account, and loan accounts.
- Review account balance and account transaction information for any of your accounts.
- Perform Mobile Deposits with your device camera.
- Communicate with the Credit Union using the app electronic mail (E-mail) feature.

Transactions involving your deposit accounts will be subject to your Membership and Account Agreement and transactions involving a loan account will be subject to your Consumer loan Agreement and Disclosures.

Service Limitations

The following limitations on the availability and number and dollar amount of transactions may apply in using the Online and Mobile Banking services listed above:

Transfers

You may make funds transfers to your accounts or other accounts you authorize as often as you like. However, transfers from a savings account will be limited to a total of six (6) in any one month. You may transfer or withdraw up to the available balance in your account or available credit line at the time of the transfer, except as limited under other agreements. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon insufficient or unavailable funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account.

Account Information

The account balance and transaction history information may be limited to recent account information. The availability of funds for transfer or withdrawal may be limited due to the processing time for ATM transactions and our Funds Availability Policy.

E-mail requests

The Credit Union may not immediately receive E-mail communications that you send and the Credit Union will not take action based on E-mail requests until the Credit Union actually receives your message and has a reasonable opportunity to act. If you need to contact the Credit Union immediately regarding an unauthorized transaction, call the Credit Union at 408 543-5202 or 866 543-5202.

Security of Access Code

The access(s) code issued to or selected by you is for your security purposes. The access code(s) is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are responsible for safekeeping your access code. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access code available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your access code, that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your account services immediately.

If you believe that someone has used your access code or has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call the Credit Union at:

408 543-5202 or 866 543-5202

or write:

Star One Credit Union
PO Box 3643
Sunnyvale, CA 94088-3643

ATM/VISA DEBIT CARDS

Automated Teller Machines (ATMs)

You may use your Card and personal identification number (PIN) in ATMs of the Credit Union, CO-OP and PLUS networks, and such other machines (Network ATMs) or facilities as the Credit Union may designate. At the present time, you may use your Card to:

- Withdraw cash from your savings and checking accounts.
- Make deposits to your savings and checking accounts.
- Make inquiries on your savings and checking accounts.

If you are using a Star One owned ATM, you may also:

- Transfer funds between your Star One savings and checking accounts

SERVICE LIMITS (CASH AND PURCHASES)

Cash Limit (ATM/Visa Debit Card)

You may use your Card at an ATM to withdraw cash from your savings or checking accounts up to a maximum of $500 in any one day. Individual ATM owners and/or ATM Networks may limit the amount of cash you may withdraw from an ATM.

Purchase Limit (Visa Debit Card)

The purchase limit is the total amount of goods or services you may purchase with your Card from POS merchants and merchants that accept cards with the Visa logo. You may use your Card or Card number to pay for goods and services from merchants that accept cards with the Visa logo for up to a maximum of $3,000 in any one day.

Purchase Limit (ATM Card)

If you are using your Card at a POS terminal you may use your Card to purchase goods or services at Interlink or any other POS Network merchants we may designate from your checking account up to $500 in any one day.

ILLEGAL USE OF INTERNET GAMBLING

You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of your VISA Debit Card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your VISA Debit Card may only be used for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions with the VISA Debit Card.

OWNERSHIP OF CARDS

Any Card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or any person who is authorized to honor the Card. The Card may be repossessed, at any time, at our sole discretion, without any demand or notice.

HONORING THE CARD

Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the Card will be responsible for the failure or refusal of anyone to honor the Card.

CURRENCY CONVERSION/FOREIGN TRANSACTION FEE

Purchases and cash advances made in foreign currencies will be billed in U.S. dollars. The conversion rate in U.S. dollars will be either at the government mandated rate or a wholesale currency market rate determined by VISA® for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed.

The currency conversion rate used by VISA® on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date. The Credit Union has no control over the conversion rate. In addition to the conversion rate selected by VISA®, a separate VISA International Service Assessment Fee of up to 1% is charged to the Credit Union and may also appear as a separate line item on your statement.

Member Liability

- a) Authorized Transactions. You are solely responsible for all transfers you authorize using the EFT services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use your Account, Card or access code, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. You are responsible for safeguarding your business, financial and personal data, passwords and other information to prevent unauthorized access to or use of your accounts or services.
- b) Business Accounts. For business accounts, the Credit Union will not be responsible for any losses or damages you may incur regarding the unauthorized access to or use of your account or service resulting from any compromise of your data. You understand that any transaction by a business owner, employee, agent representative or anyone you authorize to transact business on your account or any transaction by an authorized person that exceeds the specific transaction authority you have provided, are considered authorized transactions for which you remain fully responsible.
- c) Consumer Accounts. For consumer accounts, you are responsible for all transfers you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement.

You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use an EFT service, Card or access code you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. Tell us at once if you believe anyone has used your Account, Card or access code and accessed your accounts without your authority or if you believe that an electronic funds transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. For VISA Debit Card purchase transactions, if you notify us of your lost or stolen card, you may not be liable for any losses provided you were not grossly negligent (for example keeping your PIN with your Card is gross negligence) or fraudulent in handling your Card and you provide us with a written statement regarding your unauthorized Card claim, otherwise the following liability limits will apply. For all other EFT transactions except electronic check and Debit Card transactions, if you tell us of the unauthorized use of your account within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone accessed your account without your permission. If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the unauthorized use of your account or EFT service, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from accessing your account without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your statement shows EFT transfers that you did not make including those made by Card, access code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for the following amounts if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time: (i) for unauthorized Debit Card purchase transactions - up to the limits set forth above and (ii) for all other unauthorized EFT transactions - up to the full amount of the loss. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

BUSINESS DAYS

Our business days are Monday through Saturday. Holidays are not included.

FEES AND CHARGES

If you conduct an ATM or debit card transaction and you have provided an opt-in for the Courtesy Pay service or you conduct any other electronic funds transfer and overdraw your account, you agree to pay an overdraft fee as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule.

If you use an ATM that is not operated by us, you may be charged an ATM surcharge by the ATM operator or an ATM network utilized for such a transaction. The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction. Currently there are certain charges for EFT services as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. From time to time, the charges may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by law. If you request a transfer or check withdrawal from your line of credit account, such transactions may be subject to charges under the terms and conditions of your Loan Agreement.

PERIODIC STATEMENTS/TERMINAL RECEIPTS

Transfers and withdrawals transacted through any EFT service will be recorded on your periodic statement. You will receive a statement monthly. You will get a receipt or receive the option to receive a receipt at the time you make a transaction using your Card at an ATM or POS terminal. However, you may not receive a terminal receipt at some POS terminals for transactions of $15 or less.

ACCOUNT INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- As necessary to complete transfers;
- To comply with government agency or court orders;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a payee or third party, or to provide information about late, missed payments or other defaults on your account, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- If you give us your written permission.

CREDIT UNION LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE TRANSFERS

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you and the instructions you transmit, we will be liable for your actual losses or damages. However, the Credit Union will not be liable:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have adequate funds in your account to complete a transaction, your account is closed, or the transaction amount would exceed your credit limit on your line of credit.
- If you used the wrong access code or you have not properly followed any applicable computer, Internet or Credit Union instructions for making transfer and bill payment transactions.
- If your computer or device fails or malfunctions or the Credit Union's Online or Mobile Banking Services was not properly working and such problem should have been apparent when you attempted such a transaction.

- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, telecommunication outages, postal strikes, equipment or power failure) prevent making the transaction.
- If the funds in your account are subject to legal process or other claim.
- If your account is frozen because of a delinquent loan.
- If the error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union's control such as your Internet Service Provider.
- If you have not given the Credit Union complete, correct and current instructions so the Credit Union can make a transfer or issue a check.
- If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.

SUSPENSION OF EFT ACCESS OR SERVICE

If you are in breach of this Agreement or any other loan or service agreement with the Credit Union or we suspect fraudulent activity on your account, the Credit Union may without prior notice restrict access to your accounts or suspend your electronic services or access devices, including ATM or debit cards and online or mobile banking services. Such restrictions may continue until you cure any breach condition or any fraud condition.

TERMINATION OF EFT SERVICES

You agree that we may terminate this Agreement and your use of your EFT service if:

- You or any authorized user of your account or access code breach this Agreement with us;
- We have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your account or access code;
- You breach any provision of your Membership and Account Agreement or any other agreement with the Credit Union.

You or any other party on your account can terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. However, termination of this Agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this Agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

NOTICES

The Credit Union reserves the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. The Credit Union will mail notice to you at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law. Use of any electronic funds transfer service is subject to existing regulations governing your account and any future changes to those regulations.

BILLING ERRORS FOR CONSUMER ACCOUNTS

The following billing error rights apply to consumer accounts, but not business accounts.

In Case of Errors or Inquiries

Telephone us at 408 543-5202 or 866 543-5202 or write us at P.O. Box 3643, Sunnyvale, California 94088-3643, if you think your monthly account statement or transaction record is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction listed on your statement or transaction record. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent you the first statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- a) Tell us your name and account number
- b) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- c) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing or electronically within ten (10) business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. For errors related to transactions occurring within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account (new accounts), we will tell you the results of our investigation within twenty (20) business days. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question (ninety (90) calendar days for POS transaction errors, new account transaction errors, or errors involving transactions initiated outside the United States). If we decide to do this, we will recredit your account within ten (10) business days (five (5) business days for VISA Debit Card purchase transactions) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not recredit your account.

If we decide after our investigation that an error did not occur, we will deliver or mail to you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If you request, we will provide you copies of documents (to the extent possible without violating other members' rights to privacy) relied upon to conclude that the error did not occur.

If you dispute a transaction and it is later determined that you actually made the transaction (e.g. ATM photograph, fingerprint, electronic or mechanical confirmation) or if you decide not to pursue reimbursement for a transaction that you previously disputed, you may be charged for all fees associated with the research of your claim.

ENFORCEMENT

You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. If you are in breach of this Agreement or any other loan or service agreement with the Credit Union or we suspect fraudulent activity on your account, the Credit Union may without prior notice restrict access to your accounts or suspend your electronic services or access devices, including ATM or debit cards and online or mobile banking services. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgement collection actions, if applicable.

ATM SAFETY NOTICE

The following information is a list of safety precautions regarding the use of Automated Teller Machine (ATM) and night deposit facilities.

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly at night.
- Consider having someone accompany you when the ATM or night deposit facility is used after dark.
- If another person is uncomfortably close to you at the time of your transaction, ask the person to step back before you complete your transaction.
- Refrain from displaying your cash at the ATM or night deposit facility. As soon as your transaction is completed, place your money in your purse or wallet. Count the cash later in the safety of your car or home.
- If you notice anything suspicious at the ATM or night deposit facility, consider using another ATM or night deposit facility or coming back later. If you are in the middle of a transaction and you notice something suspicious, cancel the transaction, take your ATM access device or deposit envelope, and leave.
- If you are followed after making a transaction, go to the nearest public area where people are located.
- Do not write your personal identification number (PIN) or code on your ATM card.
- Report all crimes to law enforcement officials immediately.

STAR ONE CREDIT UNION PRIVACY POLICY

FACTS WHAT DOES STAR ONE CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand Star One Credit Union's Privacy Policy.

At Star One Credit Union, we respect the privacy of our members. We recognize the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of your personal financial information. This notice describes the privacy policy and practices followed by Star One Credit Union. This notice explains what types of member information we collect and under what circumstances we may share it.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the accounts or services you have with us. This information can include:

- Name, address, Social Security number and income
- Account balances and transaction history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our member, we will not share your information except as permitted or required by law as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Star One Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Star One Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No

For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

What we do

How does Star One Credit Union protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees and volunteers who need to know the information to provide products or services to you.

How does Star One Credit Union collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- apply for any credit union service
- you visit our website, provide us information on any online application or transaction, or information you send to us by email
- use your credit or debit card or pay your bills
- make deposits to or withdrawals from your accounts

We also collect your personal information from others, including credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law only gives you the right to limit information sharing as follows:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

However, we do not have any affiliates with whom we share any information.

Definitions

- Affiliates Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
■ Star One Credit Union has no affiliates.
- Nonaffiliates Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
■ Star One Credit Union does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you except for our joint marketing arrangements.
- Joint marketing A formal agreement between Star One Credit Union and a nonaffiliated financial company where we jointly market financial products or services to you.
■ Our joint marketing partners include financial services and insurance companies.

Other important information

Protecting Children’s Private Information. Our online and mobile financial services are not designed for or directed toward children. We do not knowingly solicit or collect data from children and we do not knowingly market to children online. We recognize that protecting children’s identities and online privacy is important and that responsibility rests with us and with parents.

For California Residents. In accordance with California law, the following Online Privacy section supplements the Privacy Policy of Star One Credit Union.

When you visit our website or mobile app, or submit an online application, conduct an online transaction, use the FinanceWorks program or send us an e-mail, we may collect personal information about you. Your personal identifiable information may include: name, email address, social security number, account number, account information, transaction information, and credit information. We may share your personal identifiable information with 1) our third party service providers and payment processor to facilitate your services or transactions, or 2) other financial companies with whom we have a joint marketing agreement. We do not maintain a separate online process for online viewers or users to review and request changes to the personal identifiable information we have collected. Certain web browsers offer a ‘Do Not Track’ (DNT) option that permits users to select a preference not to have information about web browsing activities monitored and collected. Our website will not honor DNT signals from you and we will not monitor or collect information of your browsing activity.

SECURITY SAFEGUARDS

Our Confidentiality

We maintain strict policies and security controls to assure that member information in our computer systems and files is protected. Our employees and agents are permitted access to member information that they may need to perform their jobs and to provide service to you. Our employees and agents have access to such member information as necessary to conduct a transaction or respond to your inquiries. All employees and agents are trained to respect member privacy. No one except our employees and agents has regular access to the Credit Union computer system and records storage. The Credit Union has established internal security controls, including physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect the information you provide us and the information we collect about you. We will continue to review our internal security controls to safeguard your member information as we employ new technology in the future.

Online and Mobile Privacy Protections

On our website, www.starone.org, you may apply for accounts and services and you may communicate with us via e-mail. To protect the information you provide us online, we use multiple levels of security. Our online applications and forms and our Online Banking service relies on industry standard "Secure Sockets Layer" (SSL) encryption to secure your transaction information and communication. However, if you send e-mail to service@starone.org it will not be secure. When you visit our website, you can access information, without revealing your personal identity. If you input your member number and password to enter Online Banking, we will use "cookies" to authenticate you and track your visit for Online Banking sessions. These "cookies" will be used to help us identify you for future Online Banking sessions. A "cookie" is a piece of information that our web server stores on your computer hard drive and retrieves later. The "cookie" will not request, require or collect personal identity information other than the information used to authenticate you for Online Banking access.
